CRUISING THRUGH '85

An accident on its way to happen . . . again.

Mike Netski pulls up the drive at a more reasonable pace.

This yearbook is about the Lads of the Fightin' Irish and how they cruised through the 1984-85 school year. Time seems to have cruised right by during the year, and before they knew it, the seniors had crossed the finish line and entered a new race in the adult world. On some days, the lads began with false starts or felt as though they were running on an empty tank, but on the good days, they'd throw it into high gear and cruise right through, setting new records, accomplishing new feats, feeling the exhilaration of new ideas and maturity. At the end of the year, each one of the Irish had reached his own personal finish line where he could evaluate the past and plan the future. In the following pages, we'll look at their efforts and accomplishments and see how the Irish went CRUISIN' THROUGH 85.

Larry and Bev Puchalski are devoted N.D. supporters.

A group that is so often forgotten in a high school but is indirectly responsible for the existence of the high school is the Parent's Club. If it weren't for these people, there would be no need for the school. And if it weren't for the parent's club here at Notre Dame, the sailing would be a lot rougher. This group of dedicated people can always be counted on in times of need. The Fall Festival was one example. Parent participation in working the various booths and making contributions helped to make the event a huge success. The antique sale was another big event as are the weekly Bingos. Finally, aside from the great help that this club is to Notre Dame, they are also great assistance to the athletic department. Many parents have directly assisted in the sports programs, by coaching and of course, their resounding cheers from the stands provide a great deal of spirit for their sons on the field. Many thanks are due to this vital resource within the Irish Community. Thank you Parents!

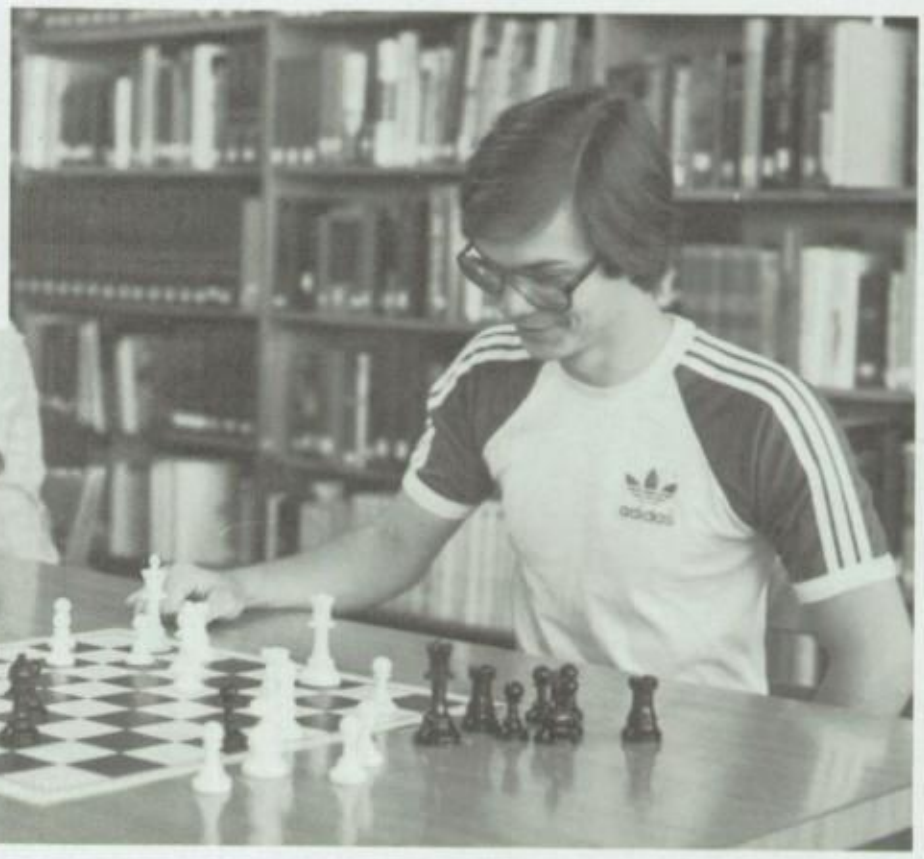
The brass section plays up a storm.

The jazz band is a classy act in concert.

CHESS TEAM

Dean Watson moves in for the kill.

The latest 1st place trophy goes on display.



Jim Williams explores his options carefully.

The N.D. Chess Team turned in another great season under the direction of Mr. Wagner. They went 25 and 5 for a new school record, totally dominating their league. Their closest competition was second place University of Ligget, a distant 11 games off the pace. Mr. Wagner cited the 13-2 start as the high point of the season. It showed off the consistency and talent of the team members. In particular, Mr. Wagner praised Paul Jozefowicz for his impressive second straight undefeated season. Paul being a sophomore, Mr. Wagner expects to build the next couple of teams around this star perfomer. Understandably, team morale was quite high all season. The team accomplished its main goal: to set a new team record. Last year, that mark stood at 24½-5½. This year, the team managed to surpass it by half a game! With four of the five starting players graduating this year, Mr. Wagner sees next year as a rebuilding year. But in the meantime, congratulations on a superb season!

The chess team's fearless leader, Mr. Wagner

"Well, let's try this," says Paul Jozefowicz.

Mr. Wagner supervises a practice with his players, looking for weakness and strengths.

TRAVEL CLUB

The French and Spanish students participated in four cultural outings this school year of 1984-85. The Bastille Restaurant in Windsor offered delicious French quisine for our first outing. The Spanish Mass on Sundays at St. Anne's parish in Detroit was the point of the second outing. Participants were able to meet members of the Spanish-Mexican community of the vicinity, and also to visit the tomb of Father Gabriel Richard in the church before enjoying a Mexican lunch at Xochimilca's Restaurant. Sixteen persons from Notre Dame and Regina joined together in the annual Montreal/Quebec trip during the Easter vacation. The third year Spanish classes participated in an end-of-the-year celebration by having a Spanish luncheon at Chi Chi's Restaurant.

FORENSICS

Mr. Kotarski was quite pleased with the performance of the Forensics team. Among other accomplishments this season, five students qualified for the national Catholic Forensics Tournament in Ft. Lauderdale. Mr. Kotarski specifically praised Norm Marchetti for his consistent effort and senior Pat Fanning for excellent performances in the Student Congress in Lansing.

Looking back at the season, Mr. Kotarski said that one of the team's main objectives was to be very competitive. As a result, N.D. ended up one of the top five teams in the Detroit Catholic Forensic League. As Mr. Kotarski said, the team was "very spirited. To meet on Saturdays and Sundays at 7:00 am to compete until 2:00 p.m. takes a great deal of dedication." He felt the rewards this season "were tremendous." Twenty-five members of the team made it possible to participate in all of the ten catagories.

Looking to next season, Mr. Kotarski expects another very strong team again because all of the underclassmen are devoting so much time and energy to perfecting their performances. Mr. Kotarski hopes that the excitement generated by this year's team will attract new additions to his already strong core of veterans.

Norm Marchetti was one of the Forensics team's mainstays.

"Matt Rushlau and the Forensics" perform for the photographer.

Mr. Kotarski took Mike Fulgenzi, Mike Puchalski, Pat Fanning, Norm Marchetti, Dave Zalewski, and Rich Russo to Lansing for Student Congress.

FOOTLIGHTERS

Jeff Godell delivers some lines to the men and women among the dead.

Julian Lubitz and Steve Orselli exchange lines.

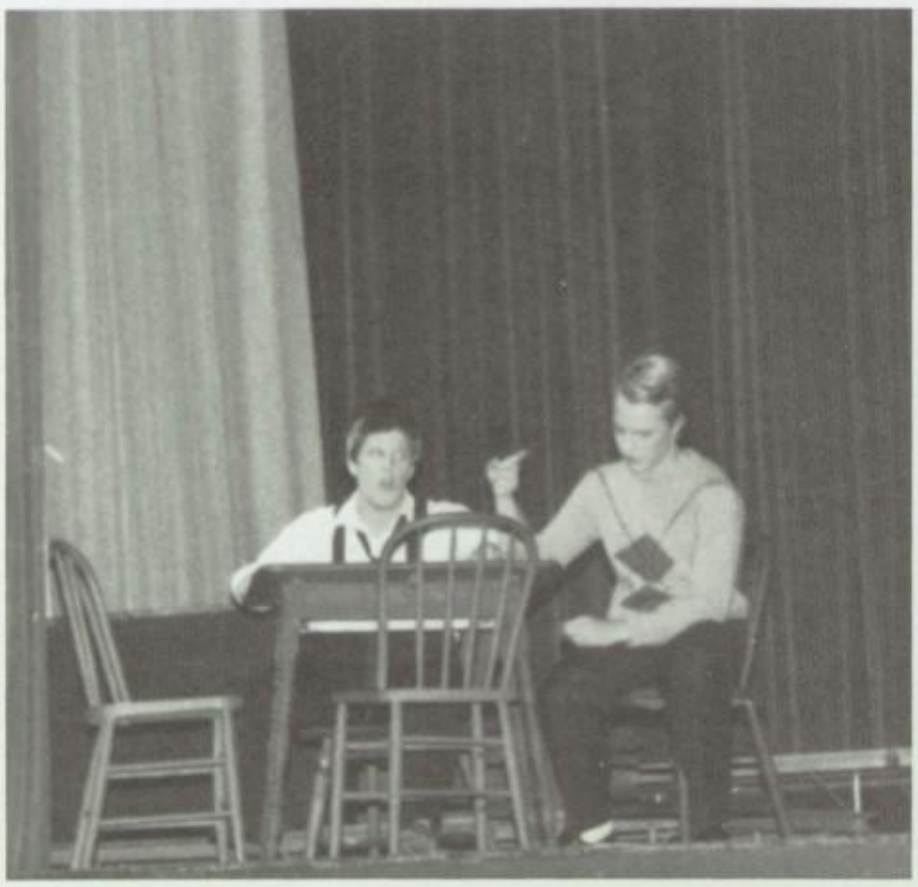
George and Emily talk to each other out of their windows.

FOOTLIGHTERS PRESENT OUR TOWN

Notre Dame's drama club, affectionately refered to as The N.D. Footlighters, were back in production this year, and back in a big way. Director Robert Valgoi and his acting troupe chose Thornton Wilder's play, "Our Town" as their project. This play is a challenge to any group of performers but the Footlighters did an excellent job as any of the audiences who saw the play can tell you. Mr. Valgoi should be proud and pleased as should be the actors and actresses. Among the star performances turned in were those by Freshman Julian Lubitz, who played George Gibbs; Senior Jason Eagle in the part of Simon Stimson, the town drunk (type casting?); Kathy Harder, cast as Emily; and especially Paul Housey, who played the demanding role of the stage manager. In all, it was a production for the Footlighters and Notre Dame to be proud of and for the audiences to enjoy. Congratulations to all involved and continued good luck next year!

Simon Stimson criticizes the community of Grover's Corners.

George and Emily stop by the drug store for an ice cream.



George Gibbs and his father have a conversation.

Paul Housey as the stage manager talks to the audience.

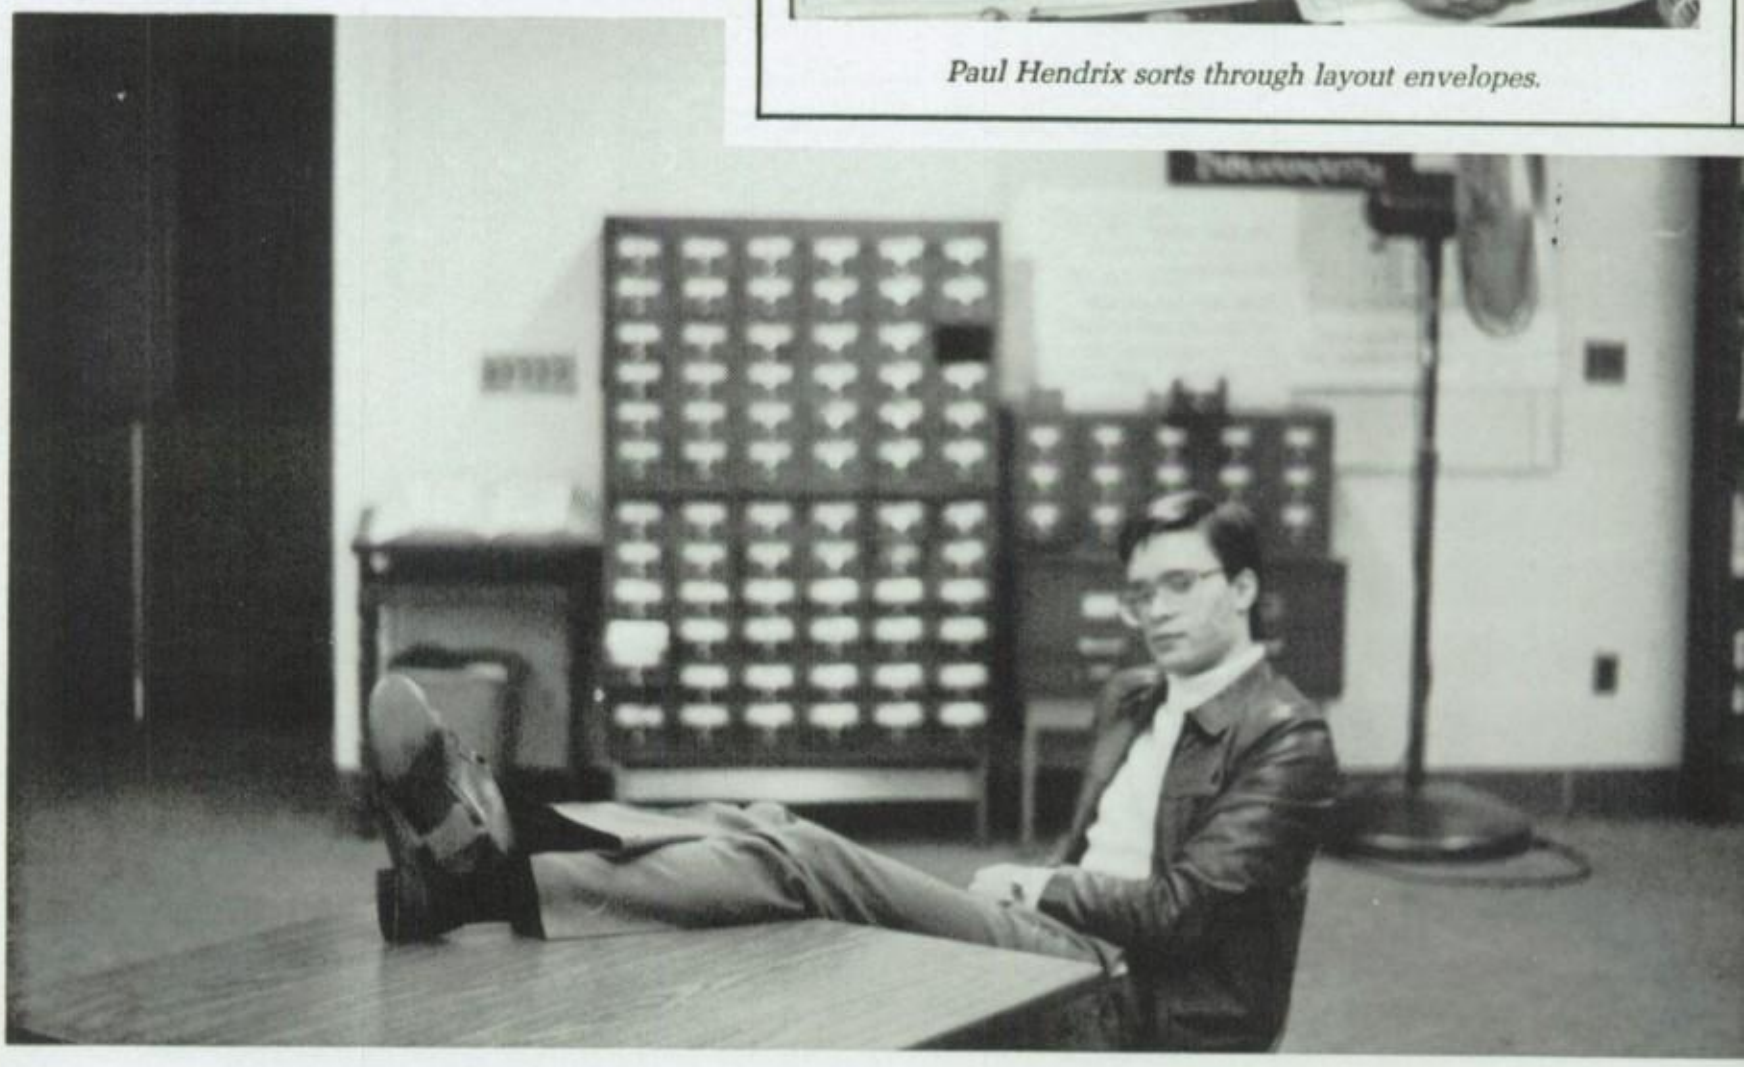
Steve Scheller has completed another assignment.

Mr. Skrzynski and Al Panaia discuss a strategy.

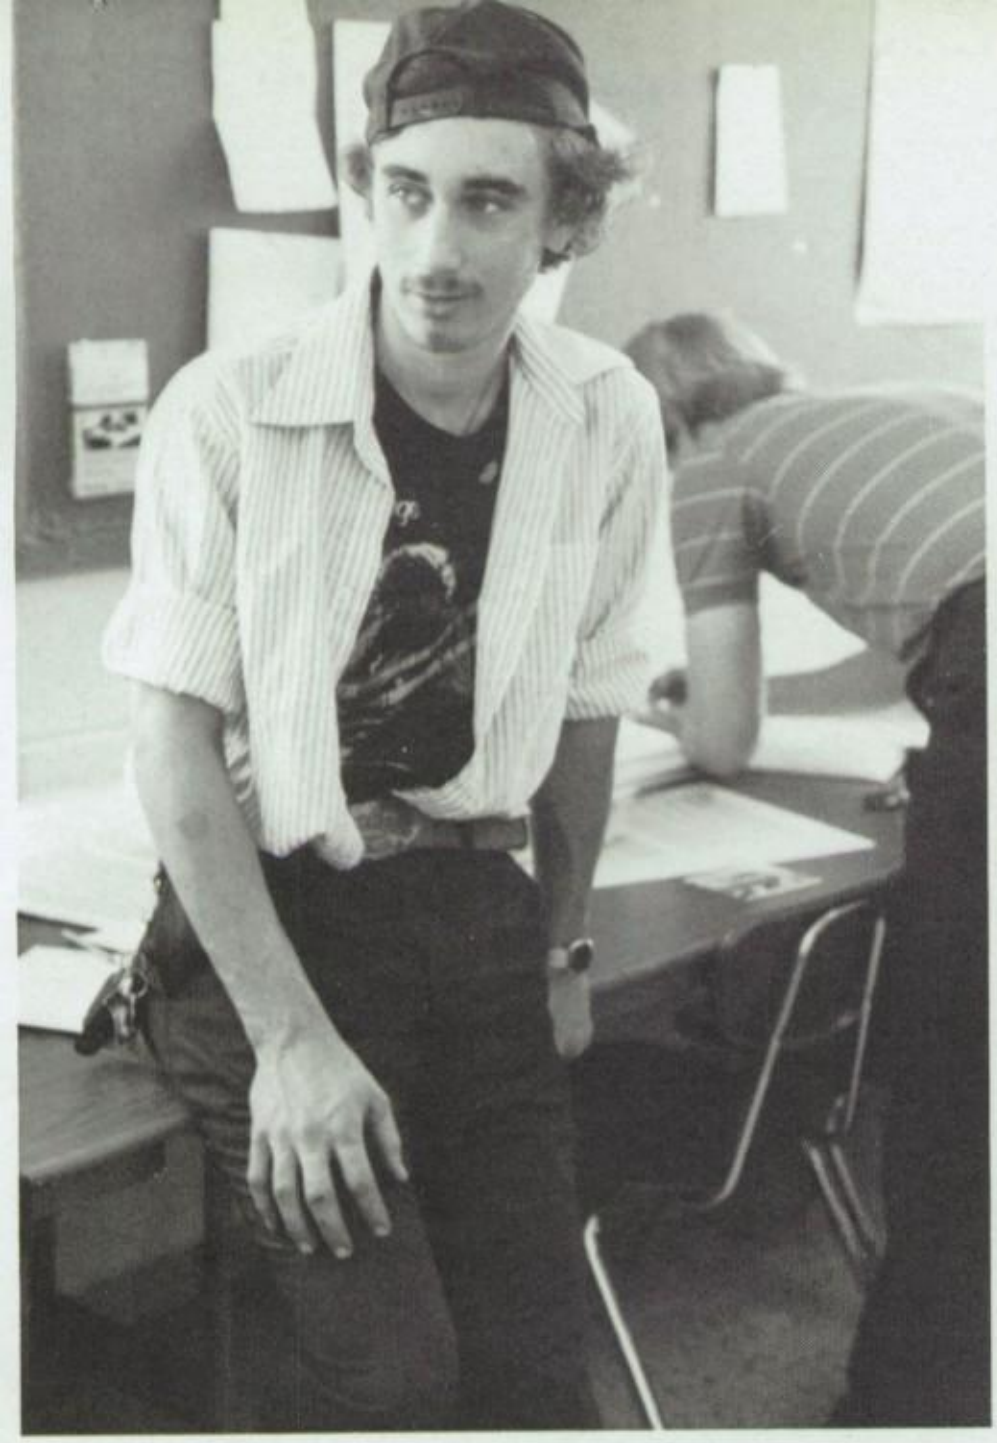
YEARBOOK

Scott Frederick finds this very rewarding work. Right, Scott?

Paul Hendrix sorts through layout envelopes.

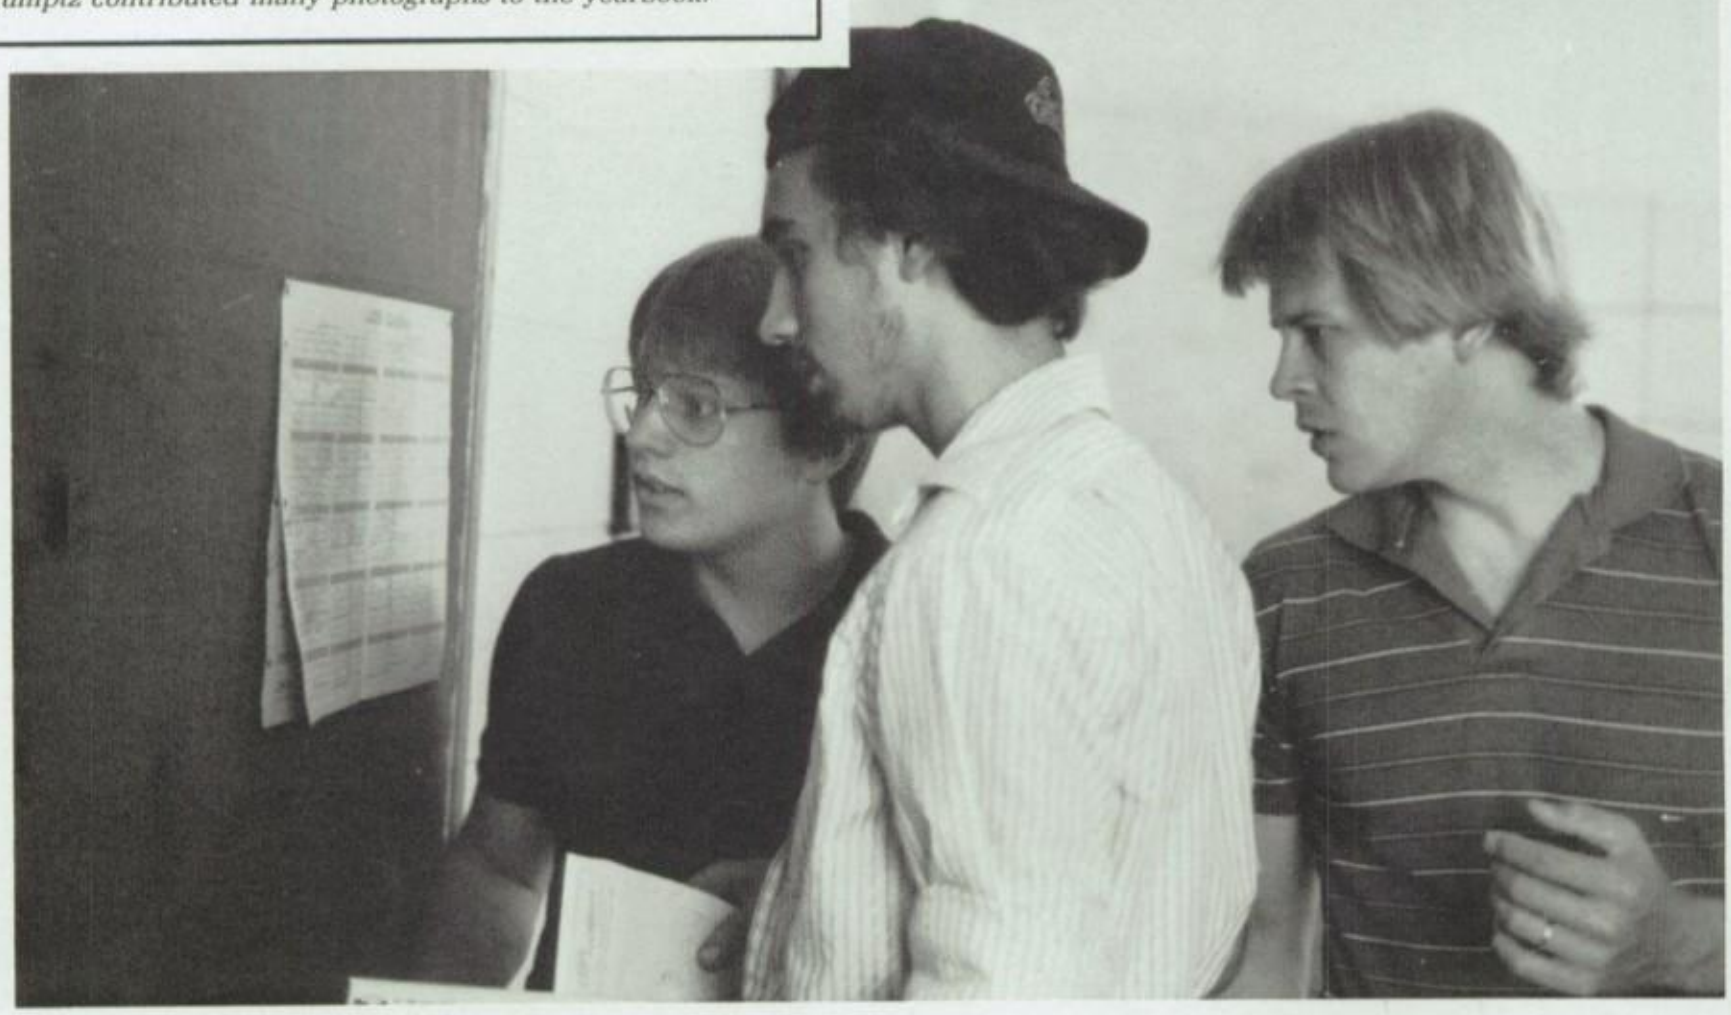


The mastermind behind it all, Norm Marchetti plots menacingly as he gives the photographer an icy glare.



Ralph Rumptz contributed many photographs to the yearbook.

Ralph and Paul check the assignment sheet to see what's next.



Apparently, someone has written some suprising graffiti on the assignment sheet. Just look at those expressions.

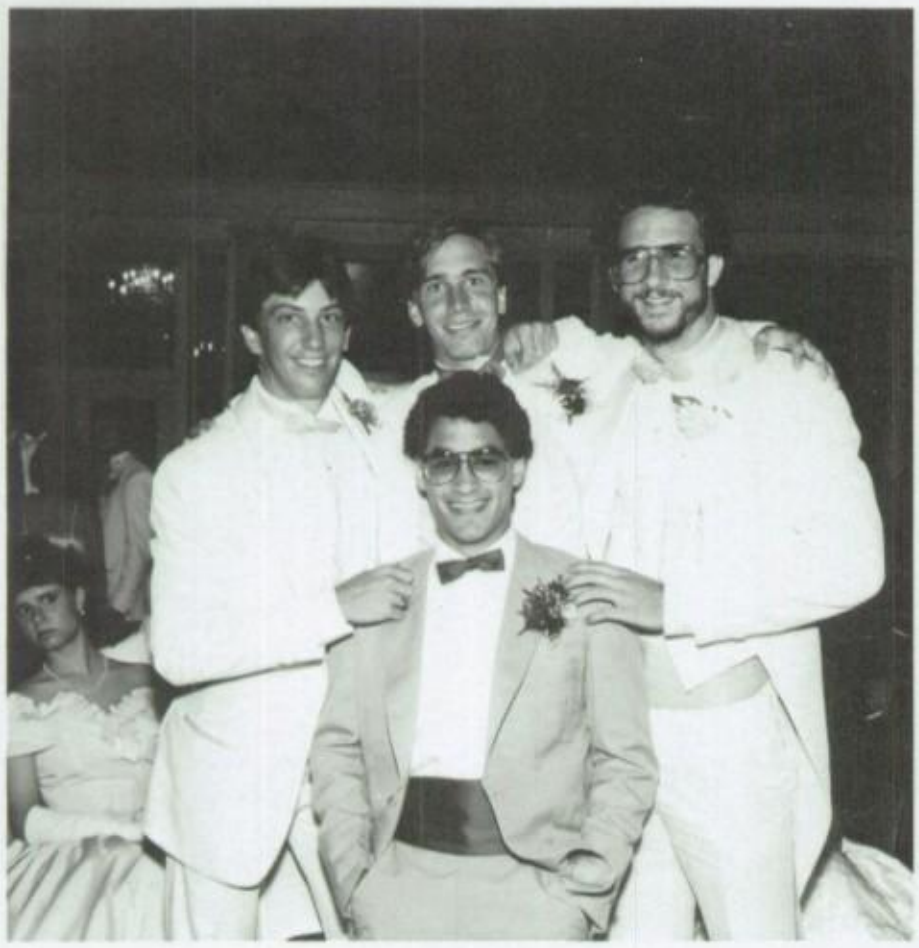
SENIOR PROM



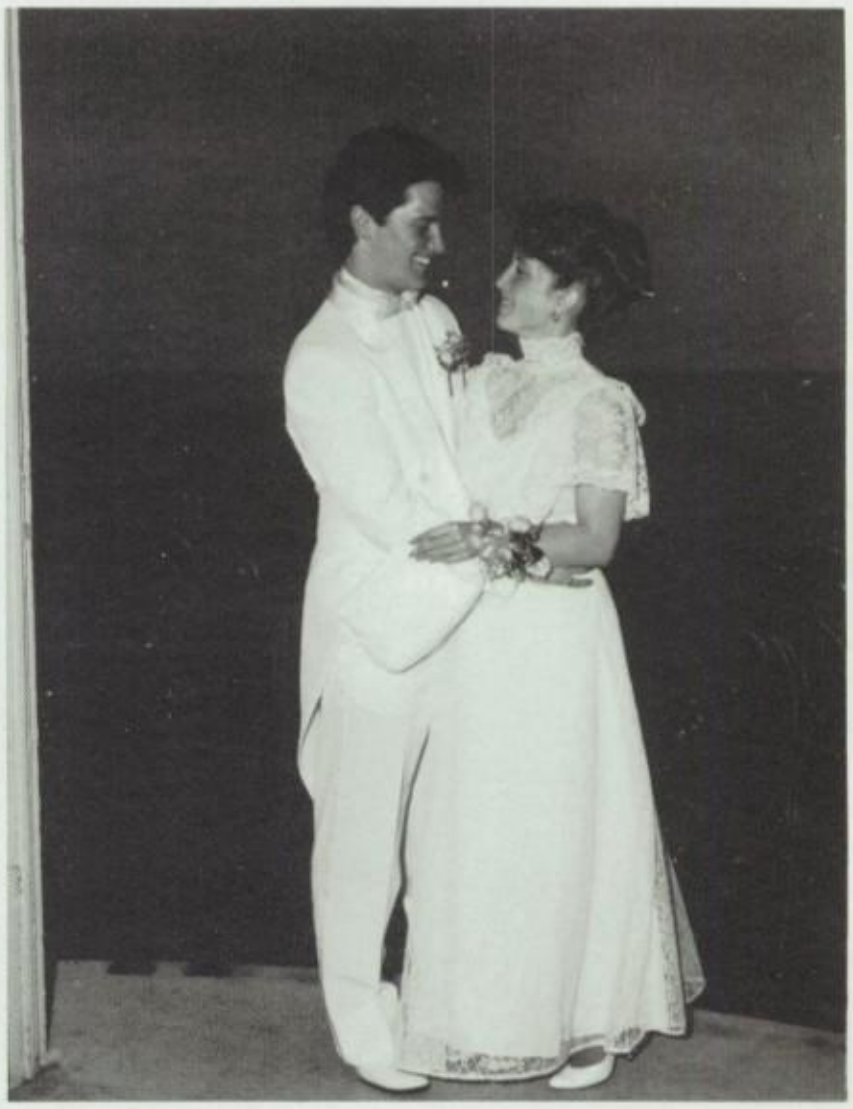
The boys were together one last time this night.

Mike Cali and date enjoyed the stately affair.

Pat Fanning and his girl friend enjoy a lively number.

Meanwhile, Rich Topolewski and his companion take a break from the dancing and do a little romancing.

Mike Janeczko and his partner move to the beat.



Mark Zahringer and his lady are enchanted by the beautiful surroundings and each other.

Joe Jones just sits back and takes it all in.

Gino Soave shoots a worried glanced at his watch. He turns into a pumpkin at 12:00. It's 11:59!

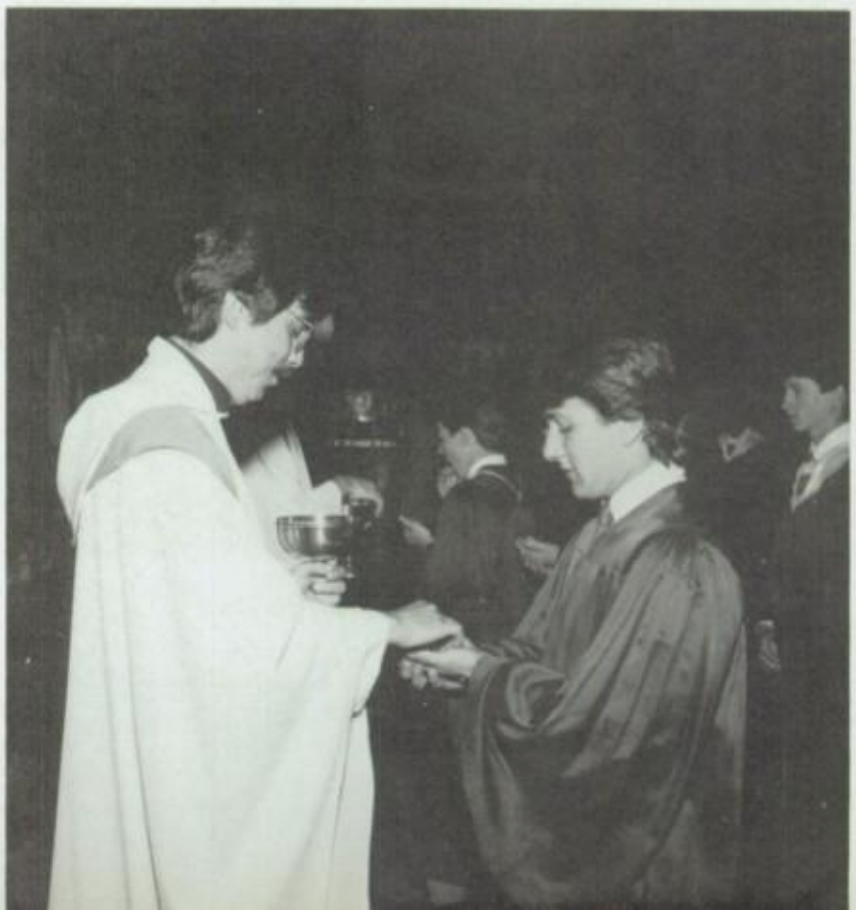
BACCALAUREATE MASS

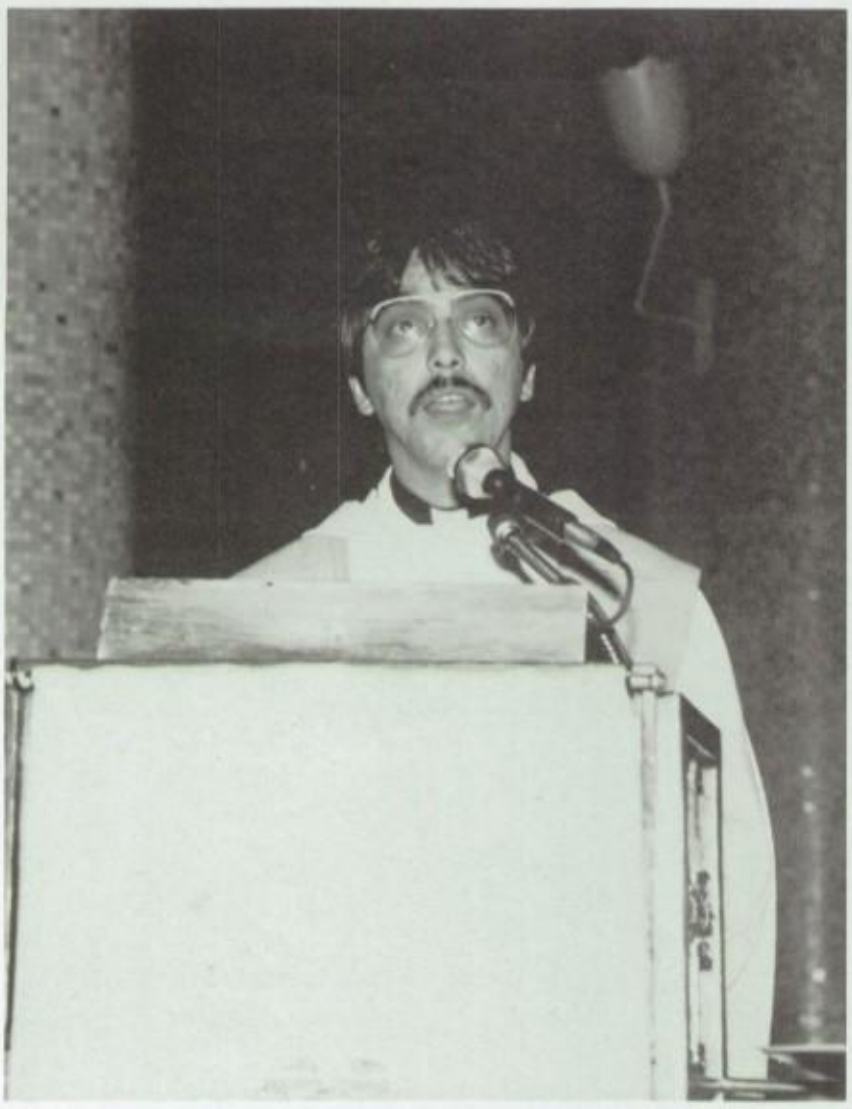
The seniors march into church for mass.

Jeff DiFranco delivers the first reading of the mass.

On the 15th of May, 1985, the twenty eighth graduating class of Notre Dame gathered in front of Saint Clair De Montefalco Church. It was to be the second last event they were to experience as a class. Inside the doors of the church, they listened to Fr. Juan Gonzalez's inspiring sermon. He encouraged them to become apostles of excellence in their quest through life and to remember the faith that had taken them this far in life and to carry it with them into the future. During the service, the Class of 85 had one last opportunity as a group to raise their voices in praise and Thanksgiving for all that God had done for them. At the end of mass, they had but one last occasion to come together as a group before entering the world. The purpose of the evening had been fulfilled; a spiritual reminder of the missions that lay ahead of them.

The Marists concelebrate mass.





Fr. Juan encourages the seniors to be apostles of excellence.

Fr. Strasz leads the men's chorus.

The Class of 85 raises its voice in song.

Mass is over, go in peace. One more day, guys!

GRADUATION

The seniors lined up and proceeded into the auditorium.

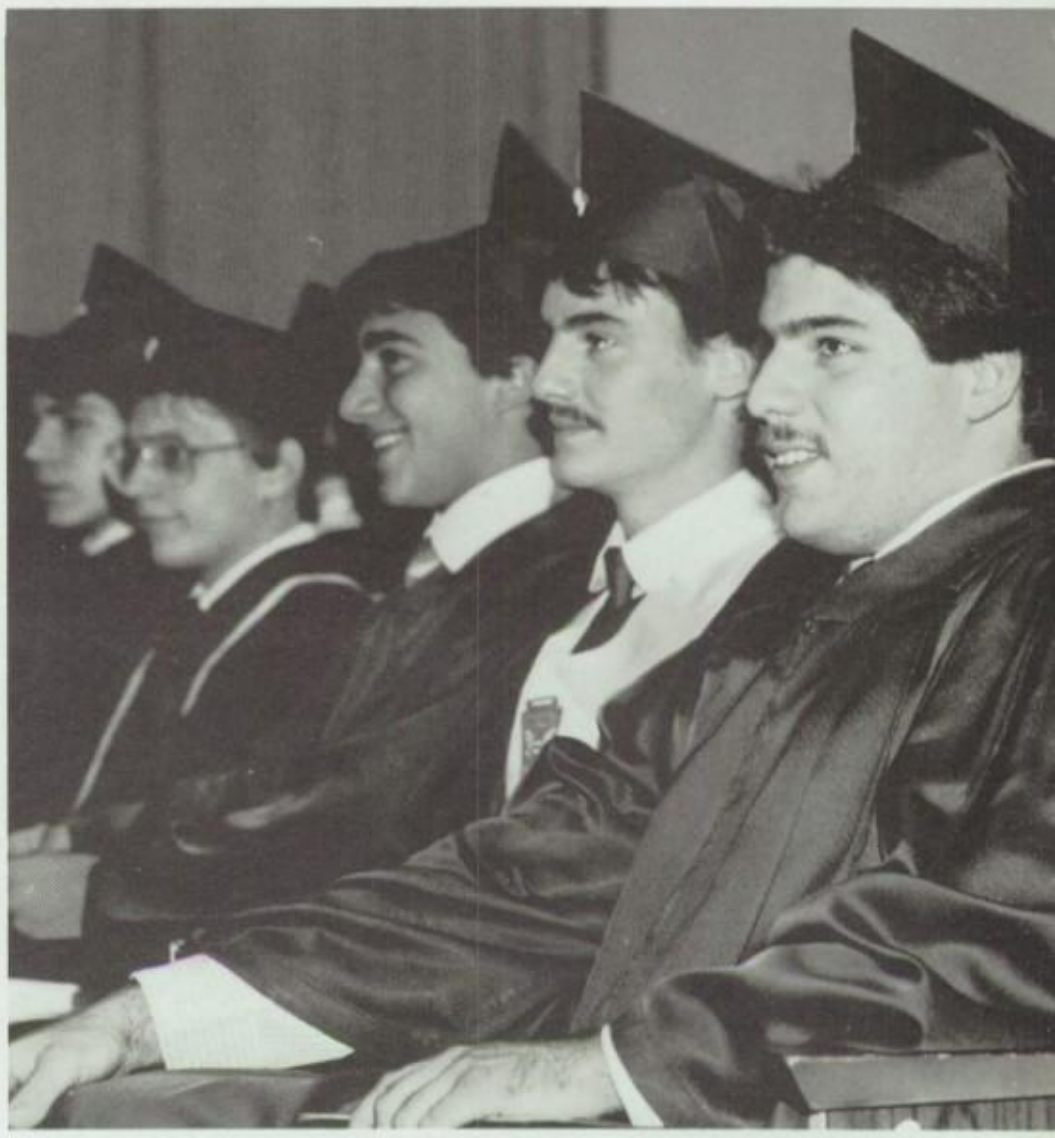
Fr. Hindelang congratulates Adam Crotteau.

On May 18th, 1985, the Class of '85 arrived at Regina Auditorium for their final moment as a group. They gathered for the culmination of four long years that now seemed to have slipped by in moments. Within a few short hours, they would be members of the adult world, alumni, finding new paths, but always guided by old principles which would insure success, principles which they learned at Notre Dame. Living proof of this was the keynote speaker, Macomb County Prosecutor Carl Marlinga, an N.D. graduate (class of 64). Mr. Marlinga attributed much of his own succes in life to his experience at Notre Dame and the valuable lessons he learned here as one of the Irish lads. He charged the graduates with the responsibility of taking charge of their futures and reminded them that Notre Dame had given them the fundamentals that they will need to lead successful and responsible lives. After the diplomas had been distributed, and tassles had been flipped. The Class of 85 proudly departed the auditorium as Notre Dame graduates.

Fr. Eugene Clegg delivers the benediction.

N.D.'s proud valedictorians, Adam Crotteau, Frank Ray, and Steve Michael.

Mr. Carl Marlinga addressed the Class of 85.



The seniors listen intently to the speakers.

Frank Ray delivers his speech to his classmates.

A quick flip of the tassle and now the Class of 85 have become Alumni of Notre Dame.

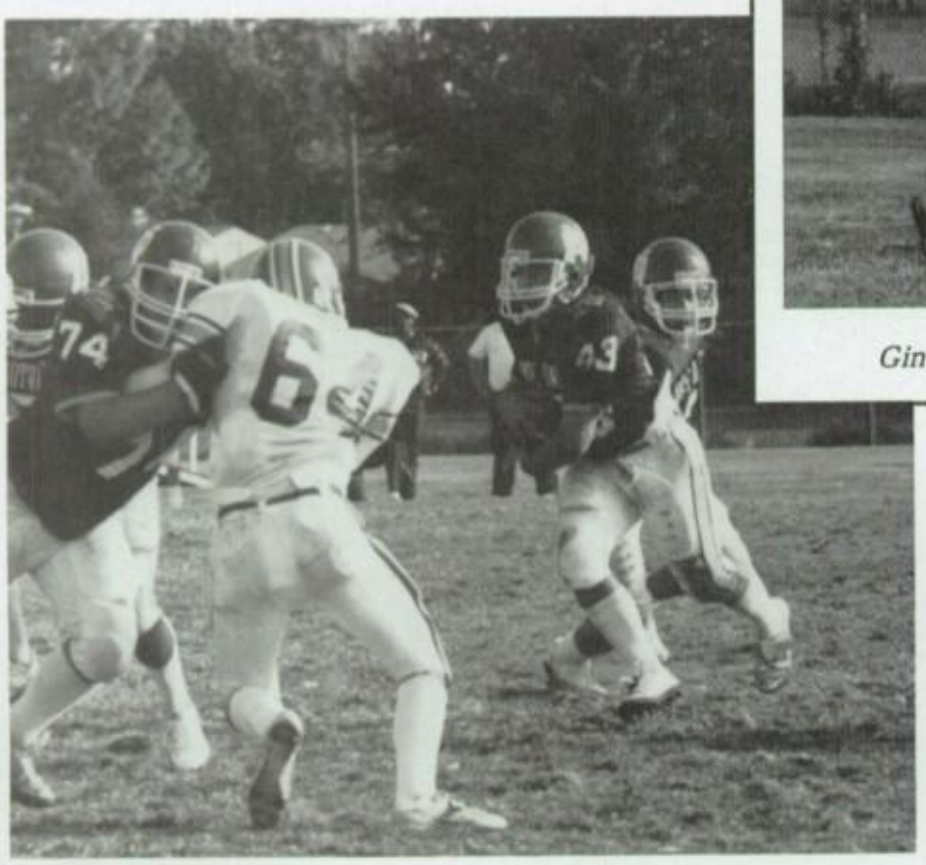
VARSITY FOOTBALL

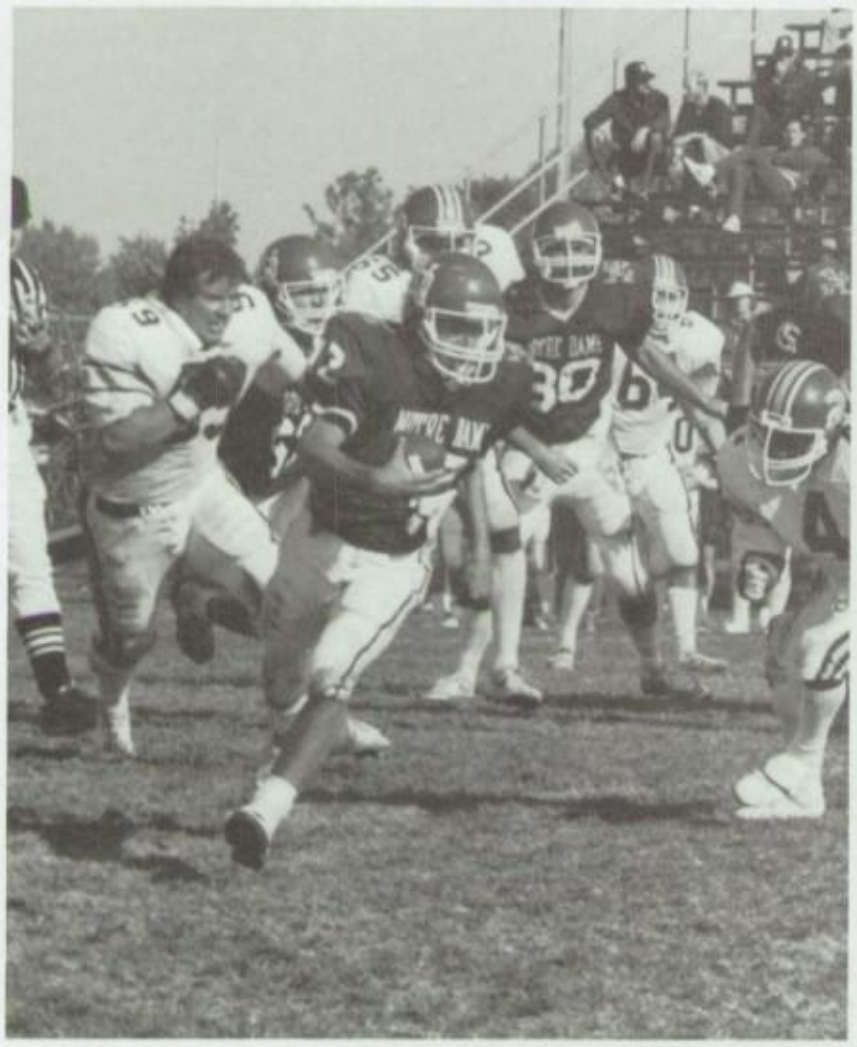
INTENSITY. That was the name of the game for this year's varsity squad. Coach LaPointe noted that he and his staff were very impressed with the team's coachability and the fact that they worked hard and "hung tough" all year long. Several players expressed their deep pride in themselves and their teammates. This alone counts for much more than winning. The high point of the season was the final game against Gabriel Richard, when the injury plagued Irish courageously came back to end the season on a winning note, which Coach LaPointe thought was especially important to the younger players. Topping the list of this year's star performers was Junior running back sensation, Don Wortham who led the team in rushing yardage and was named Most Valuable Player. Teaming up with Don at defensive back was All-League Senior, Gino Soave. Another outstanding player who the coaches felt "held the team together" was Senior Mark Miodonski, who led the team in tackles until he was injured. Coach LaPointe stated that the team's goal at the beginning of the season as "to achieve respectability in the league." They felt they did just that. This year's team had a lot of hard hitters who earned that respect. As Coach LaPointe put it, "we came to play each week - we were a team you had to go out and beat." Mr. LaPointe has a bright outlook on the future with such emerging stars on the horizon as Junior quarterback Steve Zaccharias and linemen Eric Sumners and Paul Seibert who were "key guys we could count on." Coach LaPointe also singled out Junior fullback, Frank Dickerson, who "came into his own as a ball carrier" toward the end of the season. With these players helping to build a foundation, the coming year looks promising here at Notre Dame.

Steve Gust rolls out to pass.

Gino Soave gets his foot into this kick-off and the Irish charge ahead.

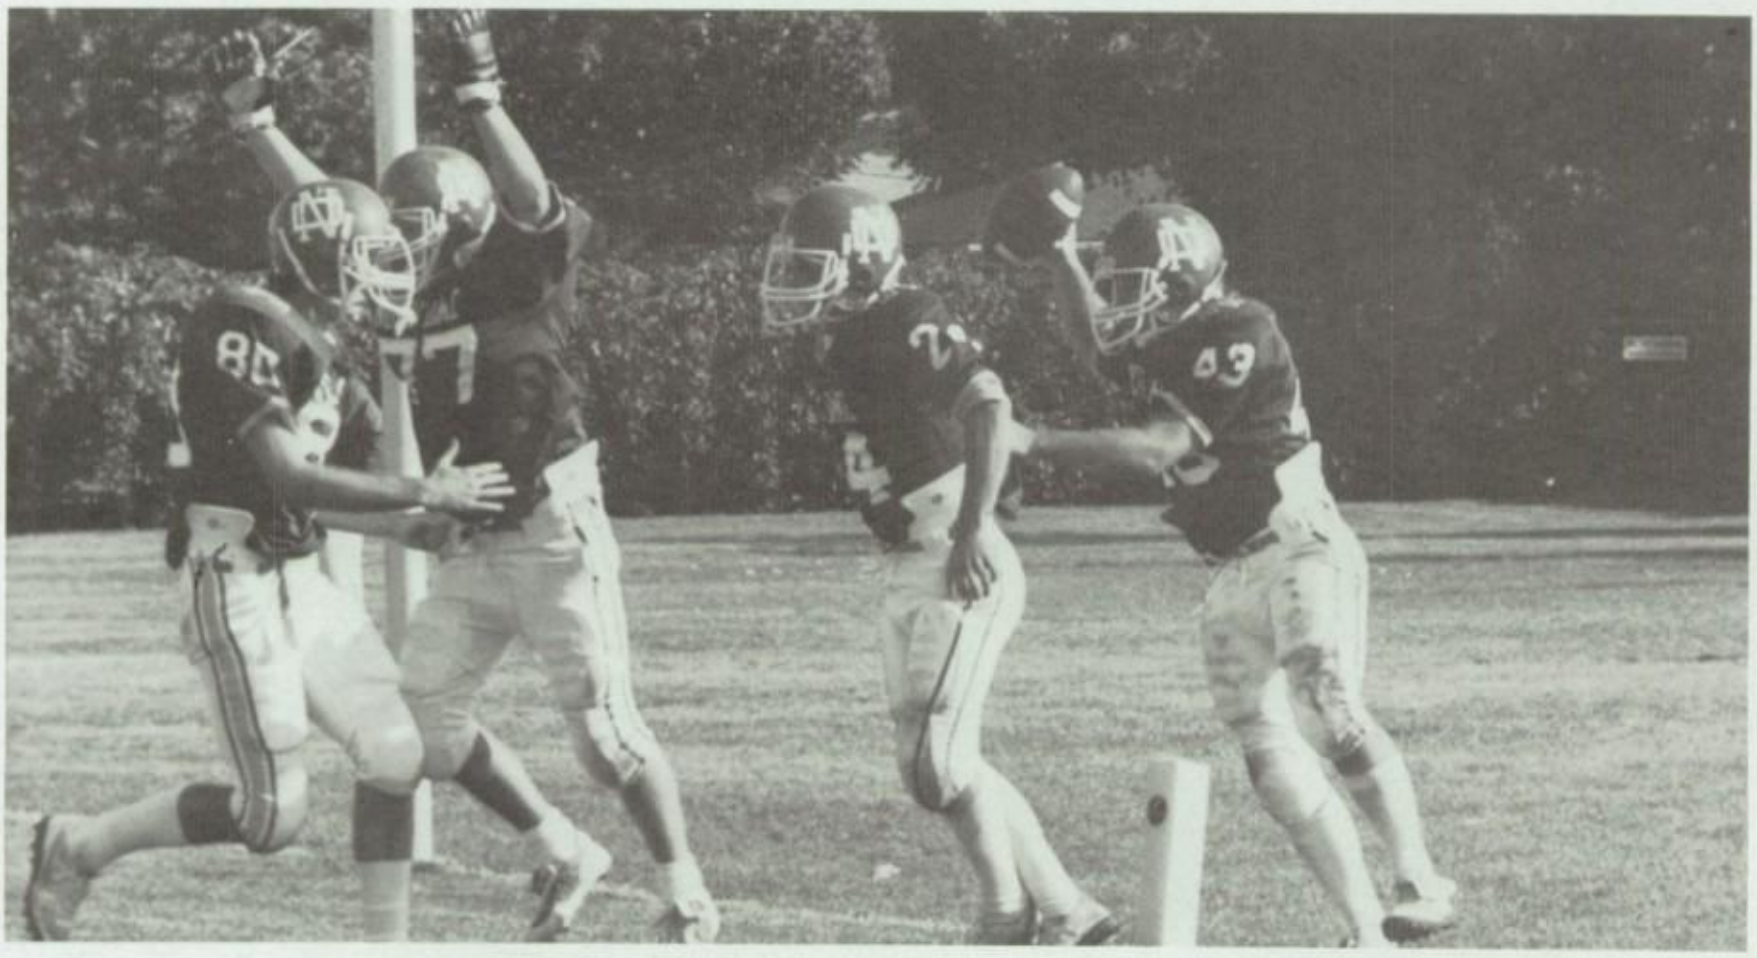


J.B. Valente takes a hand off from quarterback Steve Gust.



Steve Gust keeps the ball himself and gains valuable yardage.

Don Wortham breaks free into the Brother Rice secondary.



Bruce Smith, Eric Sumners, Chris Praet and J.B. Valente celebrate in the end zone after another Notre Dame touchdown.

J.V. FOOTBALL

Quarterback John Vermiglio calls signals to a ready Irish offense.

This year's J.V. Football team was a team that came out to win each week. They never gave up. They gave 100% until the final whistle of each game. Coach Brooks pointed to the second and third games against Warren Fitzgerald and Gabriel Richard (both victories) as the high points of the season when the team "put it all together." The top performers of the year were sophomore running back Tom Fett, sophomore wide receiver D.J. Brand, and Junior Rob Kolcon at fullback and inside linebacker. Coach Brooks singles out D.J. Brand as an outstanding player who shows tremendous potential, and looks for him to contribute at the varsity level next season. Coach Brooks' goal for the team was for them to "play tough each week in practice and at games and to prepare for varsity ball in the future." They all remained competitive in each game and gave the varsity a good look. Coach Brooks also noted the team's high morale as they "stayed up each week regardless and always played a full four quarters." As for coaching this year's team, Coach Brooks felt it was a "well rounded and enjoyable group," and looks to see many of them with Coach LaPointe next year.

Pat McKenzie sends the ball sailing as the Irish prepare to head down field.

John Vermiglio hits his receiver, Tom Fett.

Tom Fett carries the ball upfield.

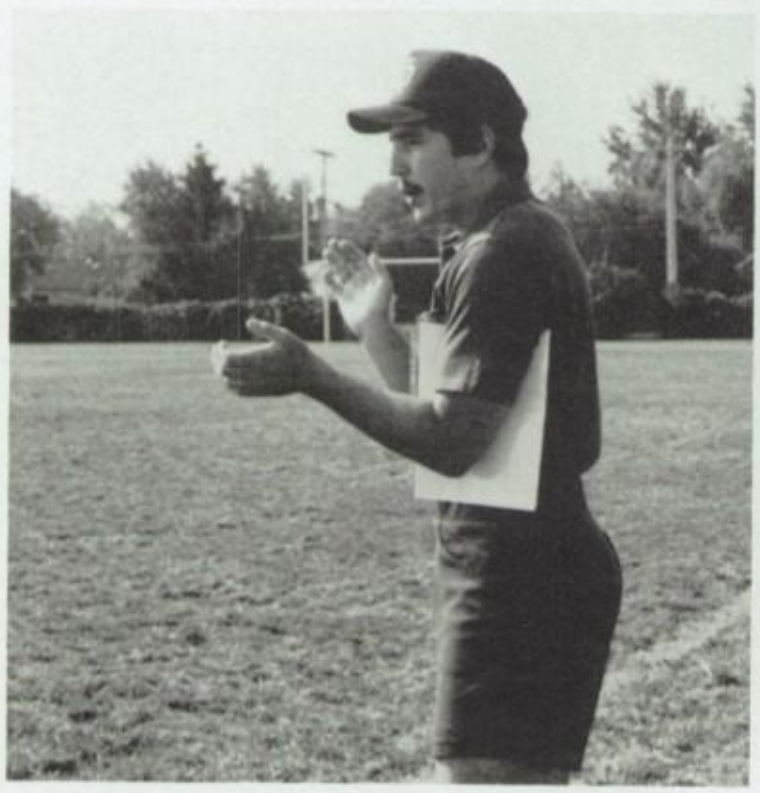
FROSH FOOTBALL

Looking back on the freshman football season, Coach Tom Hedblom had this to say: "Team morale was high most of the season. Whether we won or lost, everyone was at practice come Monday. Our team learned the Notre Dame Fight Song during the first week of practice and sang it at every practice and every game. Getting on the ground floor of our new football program under Coach LaPointe, the players accepted discipline and responsibility at a high, firm level. We have a fine nucleus for a future varsity football team." Mr. Hedblom added, "The high points of the season were taking a group of freshmen players and molding them into a fine football team and beating Catholic Central and Bishop Gallagher. The dedication this team had each and every day, practicing over any injuries, made coaching a satisfying experience. Many individuals contributed to the team's success. Among them were: Mike Den Dooven, Steve Gasperoni, Jim Venegoni, Scott Klott, Gary Jakubowski." Coach Hedblom also gave credit to his offensive line. Mr. Hedblom believes that with more hard work, many of his players will see action next year on the J.V. and Varsity levels.

ary Jakubowski grabs a pass and heads for the end zone.

Scott Klot warms up his arm on the sidelines before the game.

Notre Dame's J.V squad sets up at the line and waits to go into action.



Coach Mike Lewis offers some encouragement.

VARSITY SOCCER

Notre Dame's Varsity Soccer Team performed this year like never before. They satisifed their coaches' expectations and even went a little farther. Coach Lou Stankovic's squad started out undefeated in their first eleven games (9-0-2). They were also ranked fourth in the state before a hard loss to Catholic League power De La Salle. Both games against De La Salle were hard fought, resulting in a 2-0 loss and a 0-0 tie. Coach Stankovic said that the team was "very spirited" and that "they always seemed to come back and win the tough games." Led by All-State Senior Victor Quni, the Irish completed a season that proved Notre Dame has a team to be reckoned with. Coach Stankovic said that the team did very well considering this was a rebuilding year. Observing

Danny Joh doesn't let the opposition get in the way when their 12-3-2 overall record, we have to agree with him. It was a fine showing. When asked about next year's prospects, Coach Stankovic replied that all his returning players have developed good skills and great potential so his expectations are quite high for the upcoming season. In particular, the coach looks for leadership in All-Catholic Junior Danny Joh, Mike Puchalski, Stefano Moracini, and Joe DiMaria, all of whom he called "very skillful players with All-State potential. Coach Stankovic stated that Notre Dame has an excellent program - the best and most organized in the state - Catholic and Public schools! Notre Dame wants to win the Catholic League and State Championships next year. If they do so, they will be the first Catholic School to ever complete that task. Coach Stankovic assured us, "No less than State next year!"

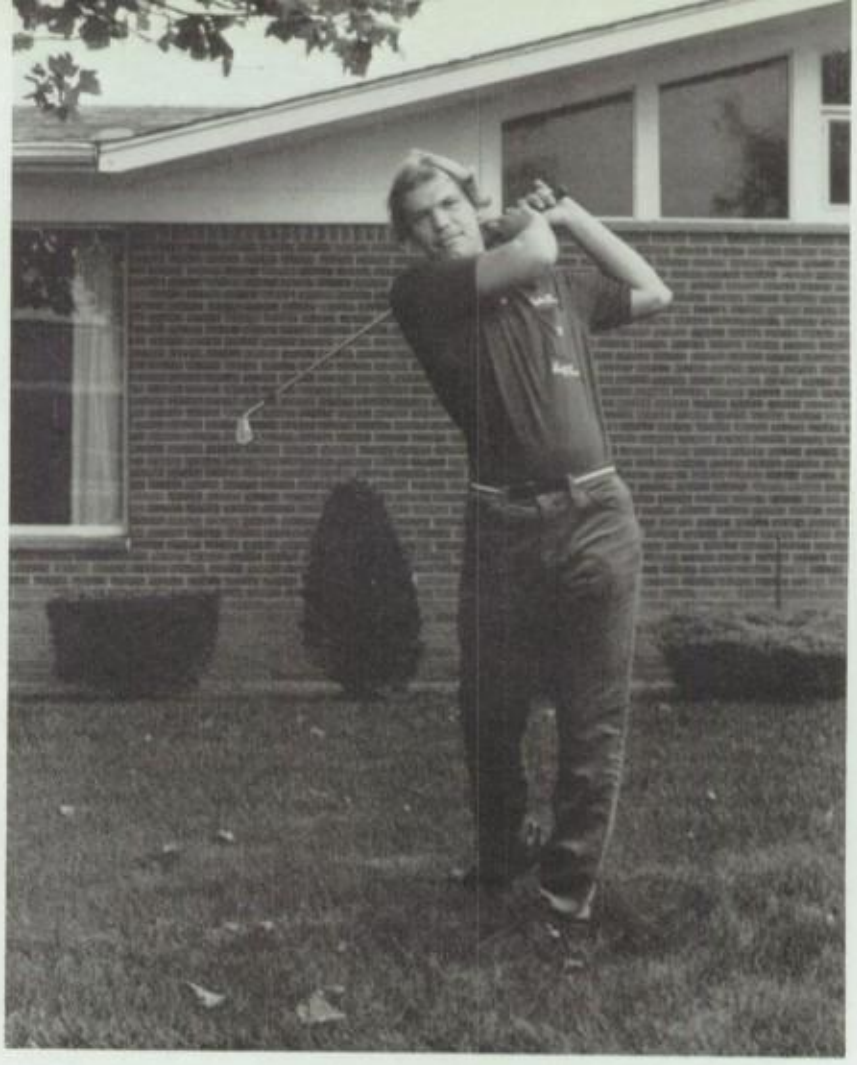
GOLF



Senior John Mair was impressive on the links this year.

Mike Brown happily demonstrates his follow through.

The 1985 Notre Dame Golf Team put in a strong performance this year with a 6 and 4 record and plenty of impressive individual efforts throughout the season. Head Coach Mr. Larry Egan said that he had expected to finish higher in the standings and to qualify for the state tournament, but those are only statistics on a page. There are plenty of intangeable aspects to the game that are equally or more important. Spirit is one. Mr. Egan said that despite the fact that some of the results could have been more encouraging, the team was highly spirited. Mr. Egan singled out Senior Mike Brown, Junior Todd Stevens, and Sophomore Jason Yoon as three of the team's spark plugs. In particular, he cited Todd's performance at the Catholic League Tournament and his all-catholic honors as the crowning achievements of the season. Coach Egan also mentioned that Jason Yoon shows real potential and should have a couple of fine seasons ahead. In summing up the season of coaching, Mr. Egan commented that he was slightly disappointed that the guys didn't go farther, but that he enjoyed coaching this good group of dedicated "golfers." He looks to next year as a rebuilding year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Sid Bass struggles uphill toward another 1st place finish

The Notre Dame Cross Country Team provided a lot of excitement during the 1984 season. With talents like Sid Bass and Mike Hannon, there was plenty to cheer about. In commenting about the team, Head Coach Dave Fluegge said that the team set its sites early on winning the regional tournament and qualifying for the state meet. Mr. Fluegge called his runners a spirited team that practiced diligently and did their best at all times in the meets. He also said that this was the year the senior squad made a name for itself (which is a necessary component of a successful team). The mainstay of the team was running sensation Sid Bass. Coach Fluegge saw Sid as an inspiration to the younger and older runners. The high point of the season was Bass' first place finish in the Regional Meet. Sid's All-State status and school record-breaking 15.49 for the 3000 meter clearly made him the team's star performer.

Rod Begosa turns on the juice for an impressive finish.

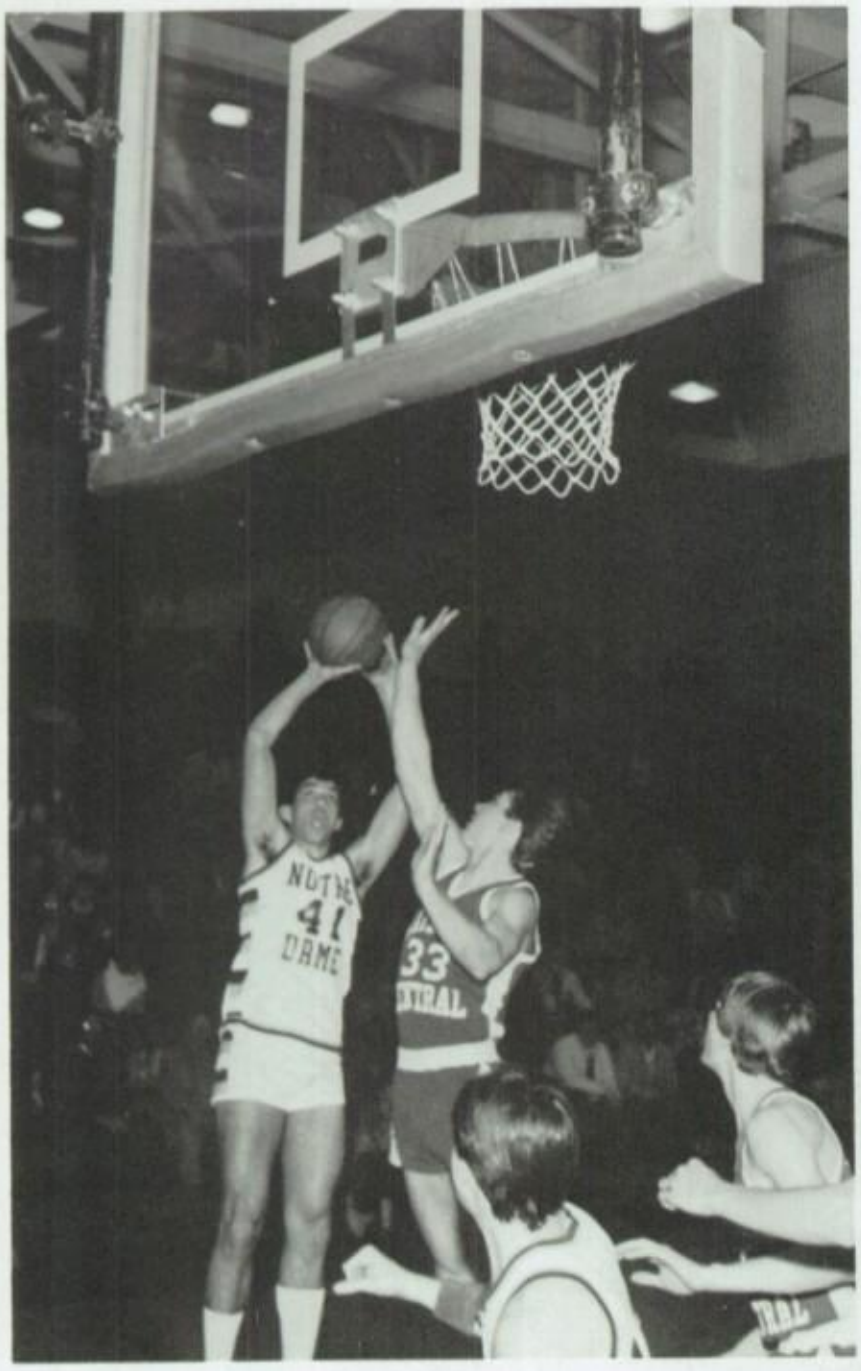
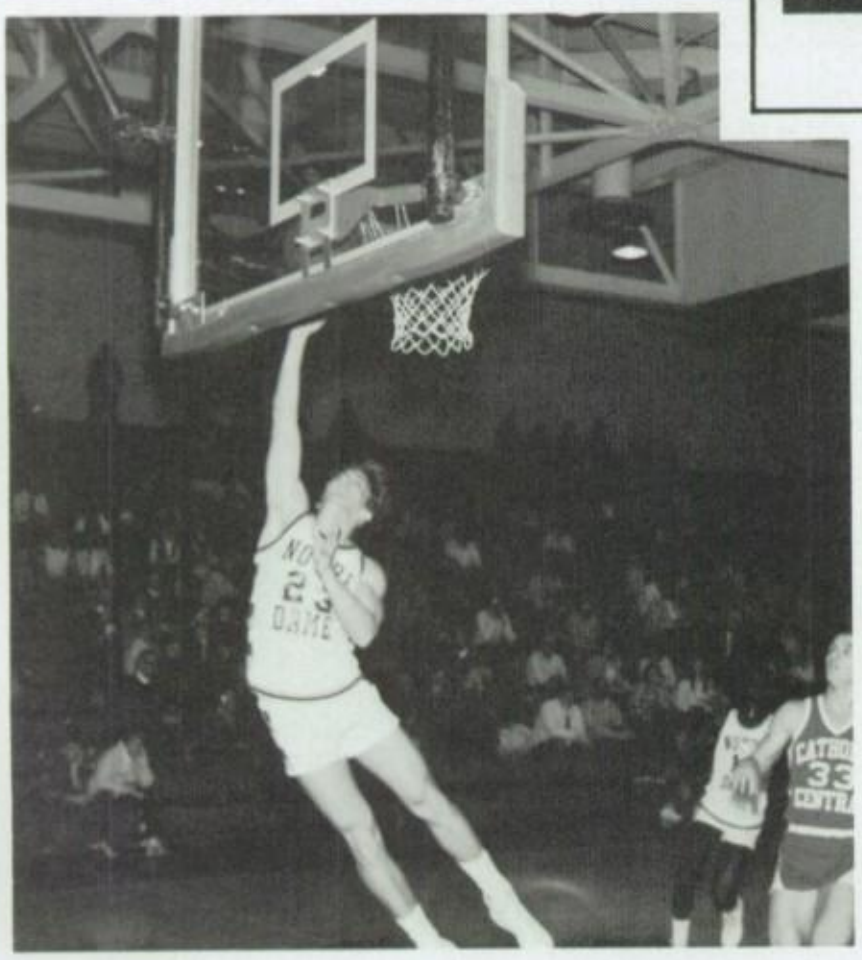
VARSITY B-BALL



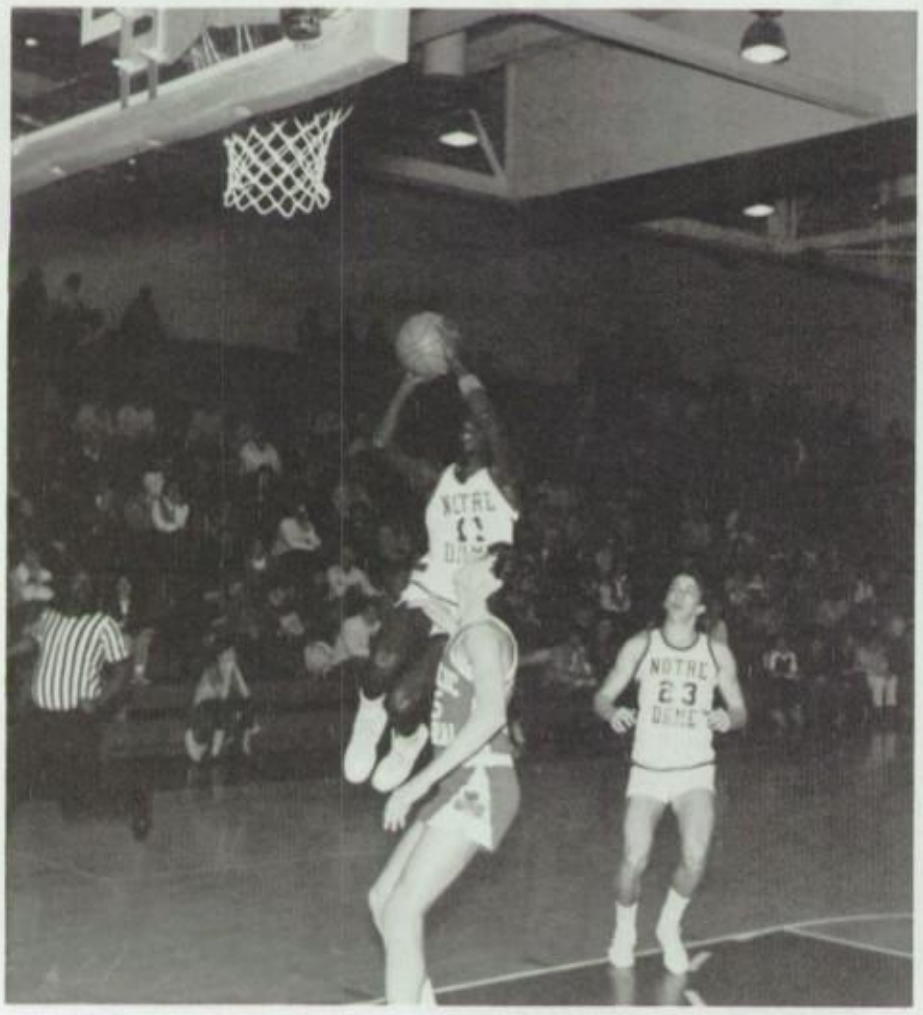
Steve Howard concentrates on his shot as C.C. pressures him.

Ron Kindred is airborne as he pumps this one in.

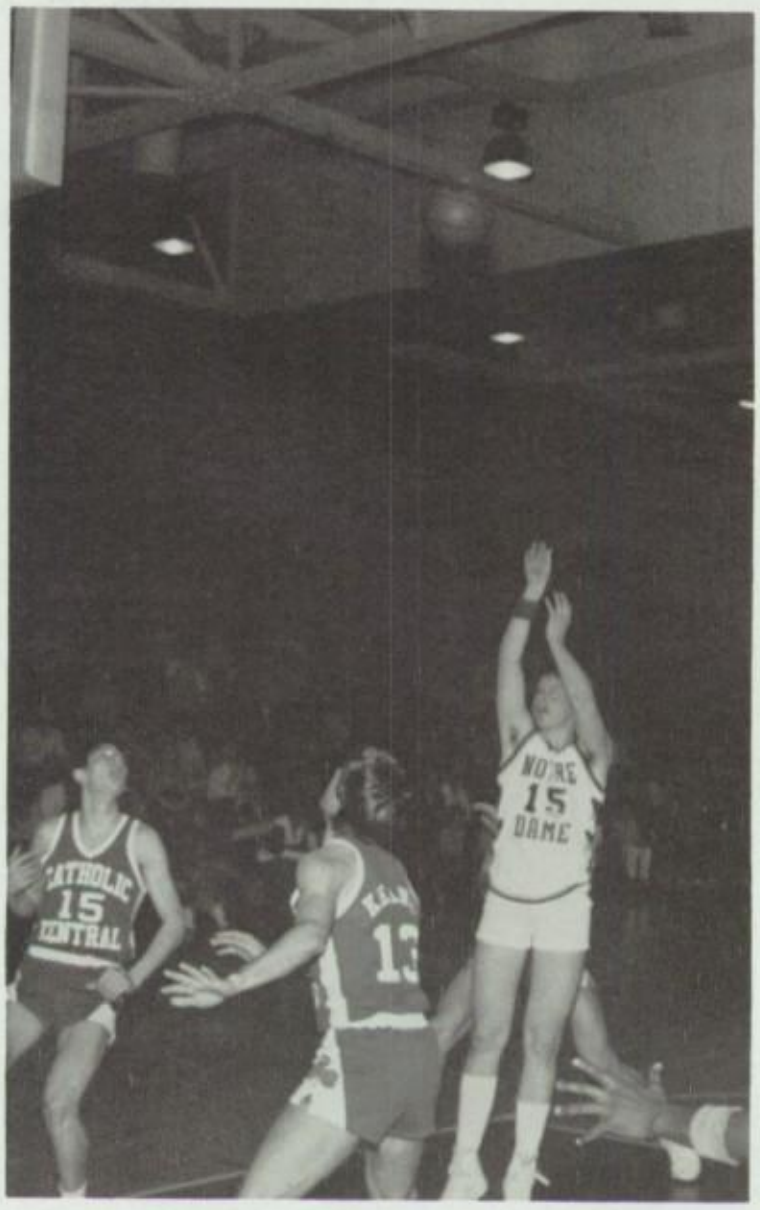


Chris McDonald puts every last bit of energy into his game.

Although the 1984-85 Notre Dame Varsity Basketball Team got off to a slower start than what they would have liked, there were many bright moments during their season and they ended up with a very strong finish. Team morale had its ups and downs, which is understandable when a team doesn't win every game, but it ended on a high note at the state tournament. Some of the disappointment lay in the fact that the team did not accomplish one of their initial goals of making it to the Catholic League Playoffs. But as Coach Reeser commented, "The high point of the season came at the end of the season when we took eight of the last nine games and when we won the Class "A" District Championship." Leading the Irish to the bright finish were junior guard William Sayles who averaged 17.9 points per game and senior forward Steve Howard who averaged 13.8 points per game. Next year looks promising. "We are returning nine seniors including Walles who will be a four year varsity starter."



William Sayles defies the laws of gravity to put this shot up.



Steve Zaccharias scores a basket against C.C.

Don Wortham eludes two defenders as he charges up court with the ball toward the basket.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Although the 1984-85 Notre Dame Junior Varsity Basketball Team had its ups and downs this season, both players and coach should be satisfied with the progress made during the season. "The competition was tough in the league and the players had to learn to concentrate on the game and execute well." said Coach Fred Spears. "I feel that the team members learned to do that. Eventually they learned to work as a unit and not as a bunch of individuals. This was important." Team spirit was good regardless of the won/lost column. "They came to practice to work and they came to the games to play their hardest. They were consistent." continued Coach Spears. As far as star performers were concerned, Coach Spears mentioned Dave Piejack, John Vermiglio, and Sam Ciaramitaro as the leaders of the team and said that he expected each of them to see some playing time at the varsity level next year. Looking to next year, Coach Spears said he feels that the freshmen squad produced some talented players who will fill in a few empty spaces on the J.V. line-up, and some of the sophomores returning next year will "round it off."

Dave Piejack gets past two defenders and scores two points.

Sam Ciaramitaro fights viciously for the rebound.

John Vermiglio quickly passes to his teammate on a break away.

The amazing Mr. Basketball comes to the rescue!

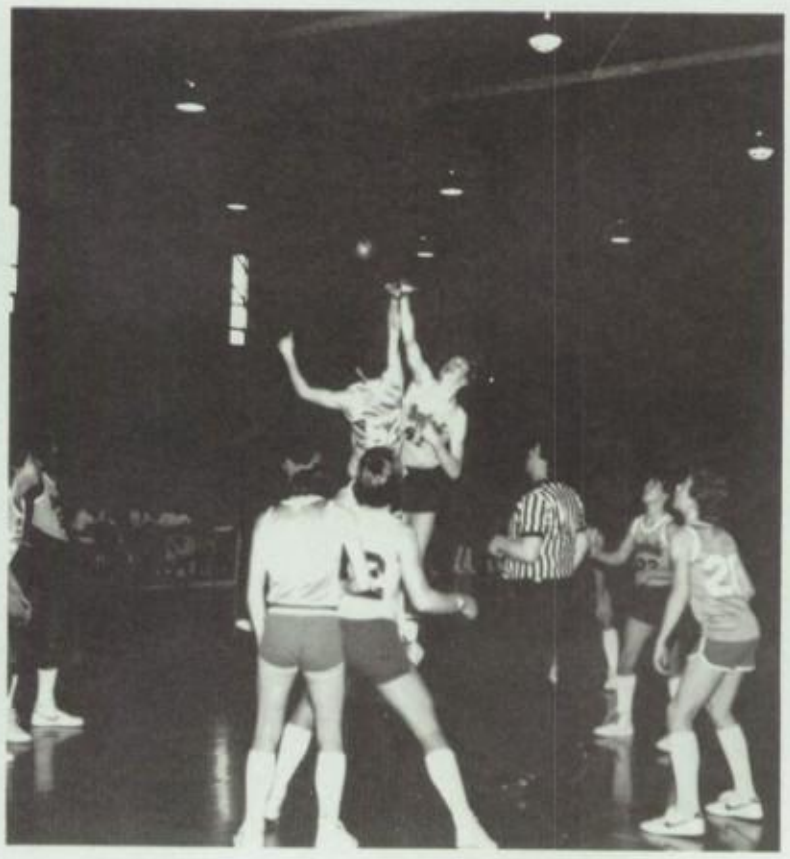
FRESHMAN B-BALL

Ted Cimafranca on a lay-up.

The Freshman Basketball Team wasn't able to put together a lot of victories this year, but the team players learned that there's more to the game than winning. Putting in 100% at practice and in the game is an important characteristic of a good basketball player and the freshmen lived up to that expectation. Morale was good; the players were willing to fight through all the games; win or lose. Although the team goals of a first place finish, etc. were not met, individual goals for players certainly were. There was a definite improvement in the players' games throughout the course of the season. Ball handling, developing plays, assists, etc. all started to take shape. Leading the team were Ted Cimafranca (the leading rebounder) and Chris Dee (the leading scorer). Craig Fitzpatrick should also prove himself in the future judging from the fine job he did this year as point guard.

Craig Fitzpatrick is determined to get past this Lakeview guard.

Ted Cimafranca outleaps his defender and sinks two.



Eric Johnson wins the toss up for his Irish teammates.

GYMNASTICS

The 1984-85 N.D. Gymnastics Team had a season they could be proud of. They went 8 and 1, placing in the league and 2nd in the state. Morale was high as Coach Ken Parent said, "The spirit carried them throughout the season, even when they lost the last dual meet of the season against Ann Arbor Pioneer." Mr. Parent said, "Rich Topolewski put in four years of non-stop hard work. No one has equalled the amount and intensity of work he has contributed to the development of gymnastics at Notre Dame. Brian Dooley has done well also." The team's goals this year were to do as well this season as they did last season; to surpass the record high team score set last year; to help rookies advance further in their first year; and to do it all with gusto and class all the way." Coach Parent felt the high point of the season was the hard work of this year's seniors who continued their excellent performances. Looking to next year, Mr. Parent looks to Bill Paoletti and Paul Groner. Commenting on his role as coach, Mr. Parent said, "I could hardly call it work. This was the easiest season for coaching that I can recall. The willingness to work hard, extra hard, was always there, and it paid off. These guys never wanted to take off a day, even when there was no school. That's the kind of guys they were. Hopefully, the spirit generated this season will carry us through next year."

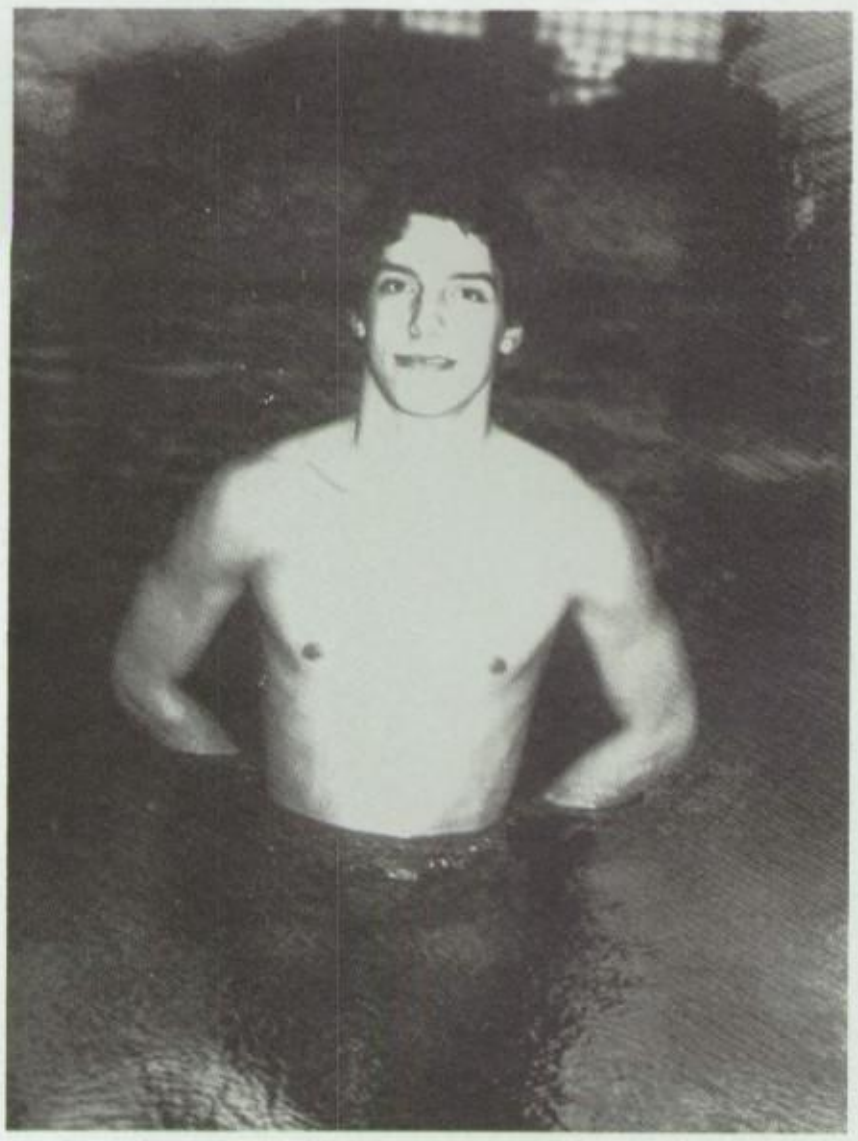
The team's most improved swimmer was Leon Mualem, pictured here at the I.M. pool at the league meet.



Senior Dave Machala was this year's Most Valuable Player.

In speaking with the yearbook reporter, Swim Coach Phil Lampi had this to say. "The swim team had very good morale. We were a good team and we had a very good record. In fact, this was the best team that I have coached here at Notre Dame. There were no problems and the swimmers worked together to do the best they could do.

The team captains: Ed Ellis, Bruce Leonard, and Dave Machala were definitely the leaders of the team." Coach Lampi named Dave Machala Most Valuable Player, Leon Mualem Most Improved Player, and Marty Renel Rookie of The Year.

He went on to say, "I feel that the high point of the season was the team's having 96.4% of its swimmers reach their best performances at the League Meet. This included breaking two school records. "This was a great accomplishment for each swimmer and the team as a whole."

When asked to comment on the up-and-coming players for next season, Coach Lampi replied, "I do not feel well about losing the seniors of the 84-85 team. We will miss them, yet we have a very good group of underclassmen coming up." Among them he mentioned: Joe Francis who he praised highly and expects to see as a leader next year especially in his events (best 200 Freestyler, 400 Free Relay Record). Coach Lampi also named Ted Irwin (100 Breaststroke record, best 200 Medley Relay); Keith Krzywiecki (best 200 Medley Relay, second fastest 100 Backstroke); Jeff Reynolds (best 50 Freestyle, 400 Free Relay Record); Bob Buzzelli (Best Diver); John Childs (second diver); Miee Crane (second fastest 200 freestyle); Rich Maison (500 Free Record, 400 Free Relay Record, Best 200 Individual Medley); Dave McClellan (third fastest 100 Butterfly); Leon Mualem (best 100 Backstroke); Dave Poroch (fifth 100 Freestyle); Marty Renel (Rookie of The Year); Jason McHugh (second Breaststroke).

Coach Lampi said, "So you see that we will have a lot of talent coming back. But this is good only if they, as a team, begin to work and think about their 1986 year. It they do, then they can make the 85-86 season a season that they can be proud of as I am proud of the 84-85 season.

In conclusion, Mr. Lampi said "I really enjoy coaching the swimmers and divers of Notre Dame. There are ups and downs for all of us, yet when the end of the season comes, you wonder where the time went. You look at the results and know that we as a team have accomplished a great deal. There is always more to strive for, yet this year we became and thought like a team and in the end, we accomplished 96.4% of our goals. I am proud to have worked with this team, and I am looking forward to a very good 1986 season!

Randy DeBeul is congratulated after winning.

The 1984-85 Notre Dame Wrestling Team had a decent year under the coaching of Mr. John Brooks. The team goal was to perform consistently and competitively throughout the season and Coach Brooks said he felt the team did just that. One thing necessary to remain consistent in performance is spirit and Mr. Brooks felt the team kept a consistently positive attitude throughout the season. The team's greatest accomplishment this year was setting the school record for consecutive dual meet wins (nine in a row). One of the motivating forces behind that string of victories was Junior John Hetherman's excellent performances. John was Notre Dame's first State qualifier in three years. When asked to summarize his experience coaching this year's team and to project into the future, Coach Brooks replied, "This was the best coaching experience that I've had at Notre Dame. As for next year, Mike Zotter and Frank DeBeul, two sophomores who had winning seasons and a good deal of experience should be leaders. In addition, 9 of 13 starters will return and several outstanding J.V. Wrestlers will pick up the slack. We should be good."

VARSITY BASEBALL

Tony Amodei lays down an effective bunt.

The 1984-85 Varsity Baseball Team had a few bugs to work out this year, although they were successful in most of their problem areas. Coach Joe Spada admitted that it was disappointing to have a losing season in his last year as head coach (only the second time in his career at N.D.) After fifteen years of coaching (11 as head varsity coach), Mr. Spada leaves behind him a 154-153 record, his best season coming in 1975 (25-4). In that time, he compiled 2 District Championship teams and 1 Central Championship team. In commenting on the team's performances this year, he said the players needed to mature more and develop greater confidence but that it was important that they improved over last year's record. The overall team performance was up. This was evident in the fact that they were capable of playing with the best in the league (Bishop Gallagher) and winning! This year's M.V.P. was Outfielder Keith Barich, who was the top defensive player, and the Senior Athlete Of The Year Award went to Mark Miodonski, who improved steadily throughout the season. (Tying the school record for stolen bases). Looking at next year (when he will devote full energies to his Athletic Director office), Mr. Spada said Mike Andreshak, Paul Amodei, and Joe Trombley will be key figures. He concluded, "The team will be only as good as returning players dedicate themselves to a total team commitment toward winning."

An attempted steal is thwarted by the alert Irish infield.

Tim Farrell delivers a fastball for a called third strike.

That ball is gone for a home run.

Time for a quick break from the action.

J.V. BASEBALL

Despite the fact that the 1984-85 J.V. Baseball Team did not achieve its goal of winning the Catholic League, many other accomplishments made it a productive and satisfying season for players and coach alike. Head Coach John Brooks said that his squad was "very spirited. They never gave up even when they went through a long losing streak." One of the clearest examples of that determination and effort was the exciting 12-6 victory over De La Salle. The Pilots had built a six run cushion but the Irish fought back and eventually over powered La Salle. This game proved the explosive potential of the squad. The team had some leaders on the field according to Coach Brooks. Specifically, he pointed out Dave Walczyk's performance. Dave batted .395 and pitched in seven games with a 2.20 E.R.A. In addition to these accomplishments, Dave put in performances at catcher and shortstop. Dave Piejack had a fine season until he was injured and sidelined. At the time he was taken out of the line-up, he was batting an outstanding .462. Coach Brooks expects these guys to make important contributions at the varsity level next year.

Steve Krueger trots home after clobbering the ball.

Here comes the long throw home.

Steve Krueger hurls one past the batter.

FROSH BASEBALL

In commenting on the 1984-85 N.D. Freshman Baseball Team, Head Coach Tom Hedblom said that the main goal of the coaches was to inspire the team players to give 100% consistently. The coach was satisfied his team did so. Mr. Hedblom said that all the players had positive attitudes (win or lose). He said, "While on our way to a respectable 9-6 season, we experienced many successful games. We swept a double-header from Anchor Bay, split with Bishop Gallagher, Bishop Foley, Catholic Central, and won a 17 inning marathon game against De La Salle, 9-8. But, I feel the high point of the season was watching these players develop and mature throughout the course of the season. If they learned just one coaching point all season, it made my coaching job a success! Every member of our team had the distinction of doing something great for the team at one point or another. However, our most consistent players were: Jim Pettyes, with a .455 batting average; Ted Cimafranca, who hit 3 home runs; Keith Morrison and Jim Venegoni, who stole 15 bases each, and Eric Johnson, Ken Komara, and Scott Plott, who all did fine jobs on the mound. I feel that every player on this team, bar none, has the ability to play on until their senior year. It will just take hard work and mental discipline to accomplish their goals. But some players to watch for are: Joe Repshas, Gary Jakubowski, Joe Miodonski, Steve Gasperoni, Craig Conley, Steve Lowen, Keith Dowdican, and Craig Fitzpatrick."

This is what the batter sees when Ken Komara delivers.

Gary Jakubowski makes a sensational snag.

Craig Fitzpatrick stretches all the way for this one.

TRACK

Even though the track team didn't put a winning season together in the Won/Lost column, there were a lot of individual winners. Several team members made it into the Catholic League meet and the State meet. This was the main goal. In commenting on the team as a whole, the coaches all pointed to the positive attitude of the varsity members. When asked to mention the star performers, Coach Fleugge named Senior Bruce Smith, Freshmen Mike Brannigan, Tony Showich, and Juniors Mike Hannon and Sid Bass. In particular, Mike, Sid, and Tony turned in exceptional performances, qualifying for All-State honors. Looking toward next season, Mr. Fluegge said, "It's a tough league. We need sprinters and may have found several in Julian Lubitz, Scott Wolff, and Paul Mann." The coach is anticipating fine future performances from Mike Brannigan, in the high jump and the half mile, John Childs in pole vaulting, and Julian Lubitz in sprinting.

Julian Lubitz buries the competition heading to the finish line.

The N.D. Tennis Team started the season on a high note but after losses to two highly ranked opponents, their confidence was tested. The team was led by Ed Duda, who Coach Parent called "a cut above, in terms of ability." Coach Parent continued to say, "But at that first position, it's easy to get knocked out because all the teams, both good and fair, seem to have one good tennis player. Ed was tougher this season but has even greater potential for next year." As for up-and-coming players, Mr. Parent cited Ken Emery, who played 3rd singles; Scott Hafeli and Alfred Itchon, second doubles; and Danny Joh, third doubles. "These young men are first year players for N.D." said Coach Parent. "They showed a lot of potential for rookies and off-season play should toughen them up for next year. They had excellent attitudes too. Although loosing Frank Ray will hurt, the coach expects next season's team to be tough if they work hard till then."
